Hergest Croft Gardens and Brobury House and Gardens

A day visit to famous gardens

Hergest Croft

Tuesday 12th May 2026

HERGEST CROFT GARDENS

These critically acclaimed stunning 70 acre gardens hold national collections of maples, birches and zelkovas. Created by five generations of the Bank's family, Hergest Croft Gardens boast one of the finest collections of plants and shrubs in the UK, with many rare and exotic species and over 130 Champion trees.

Morning coffee / tea and lunch included before travelling to:

BROBURY HOUSE AND GARDENS

Set on the picturesque banks of the River Wye, it is a perfect site for a terraced Victorian garden, laid out in the 1880's when the house was built. It is truly a garden for all seasons.

The walled garden café is open for refreshments (at own expense)

Both gardens have a combination of flat and undulating terrain. Please check the accessibility statements of both gardens before you book.
